Location

Sa Rapita, also known as La Rapita in Spanish, is a small, idyllic fishing village on the south coast of Mallorca.

Situated right next to a nature reserve, it is flanked by two of Mallorca's most beautiful beaches: Ses Covetes and the natural beach of Es Trenc.

As the yacht club can be described as the heart of Sa Rapita, the leisure activities on offer, alongside golf and hiking, focus mainly on water sports such as surfing, sailing and diving.

Furnishing description

Kitchen with Miele appliances, heat pump and underfloor heating in the bathrooms, air conditioning (cooling/heating). Terraces with electricity and water connections, porcelain stoneware tiles (non-slip in outdoor areas), parking space with pre-installation for an electric car charging point, storage rooms, communal swimming pool
