Description

An exquisite semi-detached villa that is adorned with traditional Mallorquin elements for the entire property. The excellent open plan layout of the living spaces, which includes the kitchen, living room, and dining room all opening onto a light terrace that overlooks the sunny private pool area, makes for ideal living both inside and outside the home. There are four double bedrooms that are of a good size and four bathrooms, two of which have been renovated. Additionally, there are various patios and a roof terrace where one can relax and enjoy the views with a sauna and bath. Both substantial parking on street and parking off street for two cars are included in the price of the property. Because the stunning private pool is oriented towards the south-east, you will be able to soak up the glory of the morning light while still being able to take advantage of the pool in the afternoon, when the sun is at its peak.

This home maintains a serene atmosphere due to its location on a residential street on the side of Santa Ponsa that is residential. Within walking distance is the Santa Ponsa Marina, which features an incredible variety of restaurants and bars to choose from, is within walking distance.

Location
